

WEEK ONE

JOSHUA 1-3

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 15-64
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session
One teaching link.
Use your journal or electronic device
to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK TWO

JOSHUA 4-6

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 65-100
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session
Two teaching link.
Use your journal or electronic device
to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK THREE

JOSHUA 7-9

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 101-134
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session Three teaching link. Use your journal or electronic device to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK FOUR

JOSHUA 10-12

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 135-144
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session
Four teaching link.
Use your journal or electronic device
to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first In the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more Information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward In greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK FIVE

JOSHUA 13-15

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 145-148
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session
Five teaching link.
Use your journal or electronic device
to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK SIX

JOSHUA 16-18

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 148-153
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session Six teaching link. Use your journal or electronic device to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK SEVEN

JOSHUA 19-21

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 153-160
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session Seven teaching link. Use your journal or electronic device to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?

WEEK EIGHT

JOSHUA 22-24

Optional "Be Strong"
Pgs. 161-200
Read and Answer
Questions

HEAR THE WORD

Watch Session
Eight teaching link.
Use your journal or electronic device
to take notes.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

READ THE WORD

Read the weekly chapters first in the Bible, then read an additional 2-3 translations.

Note differences, similarities, and initial insights along with any words, people, places or concepts for which you desire more information or further research.

Being curious about God's Word will find its reward in greater understanding. Following through on your curiosity will also help you to more quickly "connect-the-dots" to the entire Gospel story.

STUDY THE WORD

Pray and ask God to supernaturally help you retain what you have read through and learned as you answer these 7 questions for each chapter.

1. What is the primary truth of this chapter?
2. What is a brief synopsis of the people, places, and events of this chapter?
3. What questions do I have or want to research further?
4. How does this chapter fit into the entirety of God's Word and the Gospel story?
5. What did this chapter mean to the original hearers/readers?
6. What does this chapter reveal about humanity?
7. How can I apply this to my life?
 - What does this chapter reveal about God?
 - Based on this revelation, what is He inviting me to do?
 - Based on this invitation from God, what life adjustments are needed to allow God to transform my life?